Subject: Invitation to Participate in – Online Survey on Clinical Research among Medical Faculty in India

Sir/Madam

We invite MRUs from different medical institutions to participate in the study entitled “Survey on Knowledge, Challenges, and Barriers in Conducting High-End Clinical Research among Medical Faculty in India.”

This national-level initiative, conducted in collaboration with the Department of Health Research, GoI, aims to assess the current scenario of clinical research practice, knowledge gaps, and barriers faced by faculty members across India. The insights gained will be valuable in shaping policies, training modules, and institutional support mechanisms for strengthening the clinical research ecosystem.

What Participation Involves:

- Facilitating the dissemination of the survey link among faculty members in your institute and other institutions in the vicinity/city state.
- Inviting faculty members from institution/s to participate in the online survey.
- Supporting engagement by encouraging maximum participation.

Therefore, we request you to disseminate the following link and/or QR Code to the faculty members of your respective institute and ensure maximum participation. The participation is voluntary, and the study is reviewed and approved by the SKIMS institutional ethics committee.
